Historic Fort Douglas

Douglas Ballroom – Our new spacious (4,300 square foot) ballroom at the University Guest House has a beautiful view of the Salt Lake valley and a walk-out patio with a sandstone fireplace. A dance floor can be added to create the perfect wedding event for up to 400 people.
-Banquet for 300 Reception for 400

Officers Club – Experience a vintage wedding event in this historic Officers Club. Built in 1875, the Officers Club has served as the social center for Fort Douglas. This charming setting with its vaulted skylight and flexible event space can help you create your own historic wedding day.
-Banquet for 200 Reception for 300

Commander's House – The elegant hardwood floors and original 1875 crystal chandeliers help to create a historic charm for any wedding or rehearsal dinner. The Commander's House is perfect for smaller wedding events of less than 150 people.
-Banquet for 80 Reception for 150

Pierre Lassonde House – This original 1876 home (renovated in 2008) is the oldest building in the Fort Douglas area. It has two parlors divided by a beautiful staircase and the walk-out garden is perfect for a small intimate wedding gathering.
-Banquet for 40 Reception for 100

Post Chapel – Walk down the aisle in this historic, non-denominational chapel. Built in 1883, there is a rich history of military weddings performed here in Fort Douglas. Stained glass windows and pew seating for 150 people create the perfect ambience for your wedding ceremony.
-Seating for 150

Fort Douglas Bandstand – This beautiful outdoor setting in the Gothic Revival Bandstand (built in 1912), with stunning views of the Salt Lake Valley, creates a quaint, historic setting for a wedding ceremony under the stars. Ceremonies, celebration dinners, or barbecues can all be part of your special day.
Reception for 150

The Grove – Set in the wooded outdoor area between the Post Chapel and the Douglas Ballroom, this shaded grove is a perfect setting for an afternoon luncheon or reception. Seating for up to 100 people make it a perfect spring or summertime wedding event venue.
-Banquet for 100 Reception for 150

University Guest House Hotel – Just a few steps north of the Post Chapel our 180 room hotel, The University Guest House, can provide comfortable lodging for all of your wedding guests. With free hot breakfast, free WiFi and parking, and the convenient location next to all of our wedding venues, your guests will love staying in Historic Fort Douglas. We also offer one complimentary guest room for the use of the bridal party.
