Form 990, Part III, Line 3, Changes in Program Services:

During FY25, the Organization ceased operations of its Mobile Clinic Program. Preparations were made within the reporting year to transition the program, including beginning the process of selling the mobile clinic van assets. In place of the mobile clinic, the Organization developed a restructured approach focused on chronic disease prevention and management.

The new initiative is designed to deliver the same preventative health services previously provided by the Mobile Clinic - such as screenings, health education, and outreach through alternative community-based strategies. This transition ensures continued access to preventative care for underserved populations while optimizing resources and expanding the Organization's capacity to address chronic disease regionally.

By reallocating assets and staff expertise from the mobile clinic to the chronic disease program, the Organization aims to strengthen population health outcomes, enhance preventive care delivery, and maintain alignment with its mission of improving community health across Northern New Hampshire.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments:

The Organization made substantial contributions to strengthening the regional health and human services workforce, with approximately 33% of program expenditures dedicated to workforce education and training activities. Through its Area Health Education Center (AHEC) and related programs, the Organization maintained accreditation to provide continuing medical and nursing education, ensuring ongoing access to high-quality professional development within the region.

During the year, the Organization delivered multiple evidence-based training initiatives, including coaching and supervision training for healthcare leaders to improve workforce retention and effectiveness. Partnerships with state and national organizations enabled the delivery of these trainings at no cost to participants, reducing barriers to access. Additionally, the Organization convened workforce development events such as the North Country Weekend program, engaging medical students and faculty and promoting rural healthcare career pathways.

New programming included the integration of Community Health Worker (CHW) and Doula services, providing one-on-one support to pregnant individuals through pregnancy and up to one year postpartum. The Organization also expanded CHW services to address increasing demand among individuals with chronic disease, particularly in rural areas, where access gaps resulted in documented waitlists for services. Collectively, these efforts strengthened workforce capacity, improved provider skills, and expanded access to care for vulnerable populations.

Substance Misuse Prevention

Name of the organization	Employer identification number
North Country Health Consortium, Inc.	02-0503184

The Organization demonstrated leadership in substance misuse prevention and recovery through comprehensive, community-based strategies. Approximately 49% of program expenditures supported substance misuse and community health programming, reflecting the scale and priority of this work.

The Organization supported prevention coalitions and initiatives, including the development of the North Country Community of Prevention Practices to Educate and Reduce Stigma (NC COPEs), a youth-focused initiative aimed at reducing stigma and empowering young people to lead prevention efforts in their communities. Additional prevention programming included public education campaigns, safe prescription disposal initiatives such as the "Dealer at Your Door" program, and widespread distribution of harm reduction resources, including over 800 safe sex kits to prevent the spread of infectious disease.

Community engagement efforts reached diverse populations through public events, media campaigns (including regional television and radio), and educational programming addressing substance use and recovery. The Organization also provided naloxone administration training and supported recovery-oriented systems, including the Grafton County Drug Treatment Court, where 8 participants successfully graduated, demonstrating measurable progress in recovery outcomes.

These coordinated efforts increased awareness, reduced stigma, expanded access to prevention resources, and strengthened community capacity to address substance misuse.

Community Health and Public Health Initiatives

The Organization played a central role in advancing community health and public health system coordination through its Public Health Network and related initiatives. Approximately 8% of program expenditures supported public health network activities, with additional impact achieved through cross-cutting programs.

Key accomplishments included co-facilitation of a regional Rural Health Equity ECHO series focused on addressing social drivers of health, engaging partners across sectors in identifying and addressing health disparities. The Organization also led and participated in emergency preparedness activities, supported by its Public Health Emergency Preparedness (PHEP) program, and maintained a Medical Reserve Corps unit to strengthen regional readiness.

The Organization expanded access to care through initiatives such as the Mobile Clinic and Community Health Worker programs, addressing barriers related to geography, transportation, and socioeconomic factors. Public health outreach included participation in community events, health education campaigns, and targeted initiatives addressing mental health, chronic disease, and preventive care.

Through strategic partnerships with healthcare providers, public health agencies, and community-based organizations, the Organization improved coordination of services, enhanced access to care, and advanced health equity across the region.

Executive management engages a public accounting firm to prepare the annual 990. Once the 990 is completed, it is reviewed by management and provided to the Board of Directors for approval prior to filing with the IRS.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

All Board members and key employees are required to complete a conflict of interest statement at time of appointment/hire. The statement is then re-signed annually, for review by the Board President/Chair and Executive Director for any potential conflicts. The completed forms are confidentially held in the Human Resources office and/or secured SharePoint site. If the perception of a conflict of interest arises with a member of the Board during any meeting, that member recuses him/herself from all discussion and voting by leaving the room/Zoom meeting.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

Executive Leadership and HR perform periodic market review analyses of compensation, based upon comparable criteria of organizations of similar size, expertise, and location/regional (including both non-profit and for-profit sectors) for all positions within the organization. The most recent market review occurred during the Fall of 2023.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19:

The Organization's governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements are available upon request.
