

EXPLORE IT ALL: 3 NIGHTS / 4 DAYS

Feel relaxed and energized at the same time. Hike the red rocks, relax by the pool, visit a museum, shop a little and wind it down with a bit of stargazing. Looking for lodging? Keep it cozy or make it majestic. Hungry? Savor tasty treats cooked up by local chefs. Try a Jeep tour, a mountain bike ride, or an epic hot air balloon ride. Spend a day at the spa after a sunrise yoga class. Or do nothing at all except be with yourself. Sedona is ready.

DAY 1 – UPTOWN AND GALLERY ROW

Trolley ride

Get the lay of the land and enjoy a scenic overview of Sedona on a quaint open-air trolley. Two trolley companies are available in Uptown with various itineraries that will take you to the Chapel of the Holy Cross or out to Boynton Canyon. Visitors can expect dramatic picture stops and lively commentary by well-informed guides.

Sedona Heritage Museum

Step back in time and stroll the grounds of this historic pioneer home. Each room covers a different time in history from 1876 to the present, including Sedona's ranching, farming and golden age of western movies. Check out the museum's calendar for fun events throughout the year at SedonaMuseum.org.

Shopping

TLAQUEPAQUE ARTS & SHOPPING VILLAGE – Located in Gallery Row just south of Uptown and nestled beneath the Sycamore trees along Oak Creek is one of Sedona's most unique shopping experiences. Enjoy a large selection of one-of-a-kind local shops, various eateries, and galleries at this Mexican-village-inspired location.

HILLSIDE SEDONA – A Sedona shopping center where art, dining, and unique boutiques come together in one beautiful setting. Whether you're exploring shopping in Sedona for handcrafted gifts, visiting inspiring Sedona art galleries, or enjoying unforgettable meals, Hillside offers an experience that captures the creative spirit and stunning beauty of the red rocks. Enjoy a round of indoor golf at Imagine 3D Mini Golf.

UPTOWN SEDONA – Uptown Sedona features a walkable area of red-rock-framed shopping hubs and nearby open-air plazas offering galleries, Southwestern jewelry, apparel, and unique souvenirs. Uptown is also home to about 35 dining options including local gelato shops and candy stores.

For more shopping options visit ScenicSedona.com/Shop

TIP: While in Uptown, stop by the official visitor center at 331 Forest Road for more information about the area or to purchase your daily or weekly Red Rock Pass to be used for parking at trailheads.

DAY 2 – OUTDOOR ADVENTURE

Hiking the red rocks

Sedona is surrounded by 1.85 million acres of Coconino National Forest and is home to approximately 200 trails that span more than 400 miles. Start your day early by hitting the trail to capture the perfect photo of sunrise in Sedona. Airport Loop Trail, Cathedral Rock Trail, Bell Rock Trail and Doe Mountain are all excellent for early morning hikes.

For more information on hiking visit ScenicSedona.com/Hike.

TIP: While visiting Thursday–Sunday, take advantage of the free Sedona Shuttle Trailhead Routes for easy drop-off/pick-up service at Sedona's most popular trailheads. Learn more at ScenicSedona.com/Getting-Around.

Red Rock State Park or Slide Rock State Park

RED ROCK STATE PARK – A 286-acre nature preserve and environmental education center with stunning scenery near Oak Creek. It includes five miles of family-friendly trails, a gift shop and restrooms. Guided hikes available. Entrance fees apply.

SLIDE ROCK STATE PARK – Originally a 43-acre homestead apple farm, Slide Rock State Park is one of Sedona's most popular recreation spots. It includes a gift shop, exhibits, picnic areas and restrooms. Escape the heat in the cool waters of Oak Creek. Entrance fees apply.

DAY 3 – PETROGLYPHS AND PAMPERING

Tour Native American sites

PALATKI (RED HOUSE) HERITAGE SITE – Guided tours of this Sinagua-era (A.D. 1150–1350) cliff dwelling and rock art site are only available by reservation. To reserve a tour time, visit Recreation.gov. A $1 reservation fee applies per ticket. A Red Rock Pass is required for all heritage sites when visiting with your own vehicle. Dogs are not allowed past parking areas.

HONANKI (BEAVER HOUSE) HERITAGE SITE – Sister site to Palatki, Honanki was also built by the Sinagua people. Both sites are only accessible by rough gravel roads. A high-clearance vehicle is recommended, or schedule a guided Jeep tour with Pink Adventure Tours to experience Honanki without your vehicle.

MONTEZUMA CASTLE NATIONAL MONUMENT – Constructed as early as A.D. 1125, this 20 room five-story dwelling, nestled into a towering limestone cliff tells a story of ingenuity, survival and ultimately, prosperity in an unforgiving desert landscape. $10 entrance fee applies per adult.

TIP: Be sure to check heritage site and national monument websites for any timely updates, closures, fee changes, and other important information before planning your visit.

Pamper yourself – body and soul

From luxurious massages to exquisite skincare, find your spa oasis in Sedona. Indulge in personalized services that align with the natural harmony and energy of this magical place. Book your ideal spa experience today at a resort or day spa, where every treatment is a step towards inner peace and outer beauty.

Sedona's world-wide reputation as a spiritual mecca has drawn some of the most amazing healers, intuitives and spiritual guides. Explore metaphysical shops and don't forget to book a reading or aura photography session with one of Sedona's metaphysical experts.

DAY 4 – EXPLORE NORTHERN ARIZONA

Regional attractions

VERDE VALLEY – The Verde Valley is comprised of many communities, each with something unique to offer visitors of all ages. Explore wine tasting in Cottonwood, an African wildlife park in Camp Verde, Jerome's panoramic views of the valley, or Clarkdale's picturesque railroad tour.

FLAGSTAFF – Located approximately 45 minutes north of Sedona, Flagstaff sits at an elevation of 7,000 feet on the southern edge of the Colorado Plateau. Popular attractions in the area include Arizona Snowbowl, Lowell Observatory, and Walnut Canyon National Monument.

GRAND CANYON – The Grand Canyon South Rim is only a two and a half hour drive from Sedona. One of the Seven Wonders of the Natural World will enhance your visit to Red Rock Country. Guided tours from Sedona are available, so leave the driving to the experts, sit back, and enjoy the day.

HOPI LANDS – The Hopi Tribe is a sovereign nation located in northeastern Arizona, about two and a half hours from Sedona. Spend time exploring the Hopi culture on three mesas. Stop for lunch at the Cultural Center and Museum. The Hopi encourage visitation, but ask that people be respectful of their laws, culture, and their way of life.

ANTELOPE CANYON – A three-hour drive from Sedona takes you to the world renowned scenic slot canyons on Navajo Nation land near Page, Arizona. Capture photographs of the famous sunlight beams in Upper or Lower Antelope Canyon. Please note that in order to visit Antelope Canyon, you must book a guided tour with a licensed Navajo tour operator. Tours sell out quickly so plan ahead and book early.

Where red rocks meet starry skies

Sedona Stargazing

Nestled beneath the towering silhouettes of Arizona's red rocks lies a destination that transcends the ordinary. While Sedona is famed for its terrestrial beauty, its most profound wonders often reveal themselves after sunset. As an International Dark Sky Community, Sedona offers a window into the cosmos that is increasingly rare in our modern world. Whether you are a curious traveler or a dedicated amateur astronomer, Sedona's night sky is a sanctuary for the spirit and a masterpiece of natural preservation.
